Virtual Photo Scavenger Hunt Clues
Fall 2020

A. It is the home for film on campus with 330 seats, hosting hundreds of film screenings every year.
B. You can rock climb, bowl, shoot pool, play games, hang out and even host private parties there.
C. The fireplaces in this favorite gathering place with a German-beer-hall vibe.
D. Take photos with the multicultural murals by Leo Tanguma.
E. It is a drop-in/open arts studio with the intent of providing an outlet for creativity in the heart of campus.
F. You can rent stand-up paddleboards or even a canoe there.
G. Make a W by the lake at Memorial Union.
H. The gym where you won’t find any sports teams, but they do have endless student organizations.
I. This office offers a wide variety of virtual services and programs to international students. If this is your first semester stop by to get your welcome folder.
J. Spooky stuff! Find the haunted hall.
K. This building is home to the Chancellor and sits at the top of the Bascom hill.
L. This famous Wisconsin food is also part of the nickname for Wisconsinites “____ Heads”. Take a photo with the favorite food.
M. This facility has been hosting athletic events since 1917 and is the oldest stadium in the Big 10 Conference. Take a photo with it or its famous arch.
N. This place in Southeast provides great meals that always leave you coming back for more.
O. This peninsula used to be a working farm in the 1800s. Now students enjoy the view and opportunity to gather around large firepits to roast s’mores.
P. A building where a whole new flock of Business Badgers will make their home here this fall.
Q. It is the tallest building on Madison campus.
R. Feeling sick? A bit blue? Can’t sleep? Or have the flu? This place will make you feel better!
S. Watch where you step, there are ancient Native American burial mounds underneath. Go to the popular overlook of Mendota lake at the top of the hill.
T. Eventually, this building will house both hardwood and ice. In past years it has also been the gather space for Convocation.
U. The big number shows the location of the Student Services Tower.
V. Find the university’s horse barn and take a group picture with it.
W. You can visit one of these eight houses that will take you through a journey of the tropics, desert, bog, and fern forest, they also hold the Department of Botany’s extensive collection of more than 1,500 unique species of plants and 210 plant families.
X. A free public garden on the grounds of the UW-Madison, featuring the Agricultural Dean’s House.
Y. There are 41 statues of Buckingham U. Badger across campus. Can you find the statue where Bucky is dressed in a cap and gown?
Z. Did you know UW-Madison is home to a fleet of food delivering robots? Catch them in the act and take a selfie with a so-called Starship.