I-94 Arrival/Departure Record

- U.S. Customs & Border Protection's (CBP) electronic record of student's entry to the U.S. by air or sea. If student travels by land to either Mexico or Canada, they will not have one.
- Class of admission should match I-20/DS-2019 and read F-1/J-1
- Must read F-1/J-1 to be eligible for full-time study and on-campus work.
- Admit Until Date should read D/S ("Duration of Status")
- D/S allows student to stay in the U.S. as long as I-20/DS-2019 is valid and are maintaining their F-1/J-1 visa status.

The screenshot displays the U.S. Customs and Border Protection website interface. At the top, there is a header with the CBP logo and the text "U.S. Customs and Border Protection" and "Securing America's Borders". Below the header, the page is titled "Most Recent I-94". The record details are as follows:

- Admission (I-94) Record Number : [REDACTED]
- Most Recent Date of Entry: 2017 June 05
- Class of Admission : F1
- Admit Until Date : D/S
- Details provided on the I-94 Information form:

Personal information fields include:

- Last/Surname : [REDACTED]
- First (Given) Name : [REDACTED]
- Birth Date : [REDACTED]
- Passport Number : [REDACTED]
- Country of Issuance : China

At the bottom of the record section, there is a button labeled "Get Travel History". Below this, a disclaimer states: "Effective April 26, 2013, DHS began automating the admission process. An alien lawfully admitted or paroled into the U.S. is no longer required to be in possession of a preprinted Form I-94. A record of admission printed from the CBP website constitutes a lawful record of admission. See 8 CFR § 1.4(d)."

Additional notes include:

- ▶ If an employer, local, state or federal agency requests admission information, present your admission (I-94) number along with any additional required documents requested by that employer or agency.
- ▶ Note: For security reasons, we recommend that you close your browser after you have finished retrieving your I-94 number.

What is an in-person class?

An in-person class should have an 'in-person' meeting component, including hybrid courses

- Students should have a Madison-area address
- Independent study, research credits, etc. with need for alternative geographic location is acceptable

Spring 2021 Enrollment Guidance

As of November 20, 2020, there is no federal guidance specific to Spring 2021.

We continue to operate under the latest guidance from Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), dated August 7, 2020.

Updates will be posted to the ISS COVID FAQ page.

Spring 2021 Enrollment Guidance – Continuing Student

1. Enroll full-time in remote/online credits
2. Enroll part-time in remote/online credits
3. Take a gap semester (no UW-Madison enrollment)

Follow along on the ISS flowchart for continuing and change of level students!

We are speaking strictly from an immigration standpoint. Departments may have specific requirements.

Option 1: Enroll full-time in remote/online credits

Impact on immigration status: Maintain your F-1 student status

Location: Outside or inside the U.S. (can legally remain in U.S.)

Action by student, only if outside the U.S.:

Submit the ISS Leave of Absence for spring 2021

- Reason: full-time enrollment and maintaining status outside U.S.
- Priority deadline: January 25, 2021
- Absolute deadline: February 22, 2021 (traveling after this date, no form required)

Do not update your U.S. mailing address in SIS

Considerations:

- No in-person/hybrid course enrollment required (100% online/remote ok)
- ISS Reduced Course Load (RCL) is required to drop below full-time

Option 2: Enroll part-time in remote/online credits

Impact on immigration status: F-1 record cannot remain active

Location: Outside the U.S. (Cannot remain in the U.S. on F/J record)

Action by student: Submit the ISS Leave of Absence for spring 2021

- Reason: enrolled in online classes choosing to end F-1 status
- Priority deadline: January 25, 2021
- Absolute deadline: February 22, 2021

Considerations:

- Must submit ISS Reactivation Request before returning to the U.S.
- Full-time enrollment is required when you return.
- Cannot return more than 30 days before start of the semester.
- Eligibility for CPT and OPT may start again if a new SEVIS ID is required.
- No ISS Reduced Course Load required.

Option 3: Take a gap semester

Impact on immigration status: F-1 record cannot remain active

Location: Outside the U.S. (Cannot remain in the U.S. on F/J record)

Action by student: Submit the ISS Leave of Absence for spring 2021

- Reason: not enrolled- taking at least one semester off
- Priority deadline: January 25, 2021
- Absolute deadline: February 22, 2021

Considerations:

- Must submit ISS Reactivation Request before returning to the U.S.
- Full-time enrollment is required when you return.
- Cannot return more than 30 days before start of the semester.
- Eligibility for CPT and OPT may start again if a new SEVIS ID is required.

Study at another school outside the U.S.

- Approval from International Academic Programs (IAP) is required for credit-bearing enrollment
  - You must apply for a waiver to the international travel policy before you travel and enroll. Contact International Academic Programs \(IAP\) as soon as possible for details about the travel waiver and transfer credit process.
- Dissertators outside the U.S. must enroll for Worldwide, Worldwide Graduate Research Abroad
  - You must apply for a waiver to the international travel policy.

RECAP: Spring 2021 Enrollment Guidance – Continuing Student

3 Options before January 25, 2021:

1. Enroll full-time in remote/online credits
2. Enroll part-time in remote/online credits
3. Take a gap semester (no UW-Madison enrollment)

In-person/hybrid credits not required to maintain status

International travel policy waiver for UW-Madison research abroad or credit-bearing enrollment at another school outside the U.S.

We are speaking strictly from an immigration standpoint. Departments may have specific requirements.

How to get an I-20- new & returning students

New F-1 Student Request

- No current UW-Madison I-20 with January 25, 2021 program start date
- Processed by admissions or ISS
- Request can be made at any time (most automatically issued and updated by ISS)
- Proof of in-person enrollment (min. 1 credit) required for visa interview and entry to U.S.

Reactivation Request

- SEVIS record is in terminated status for "authorized early withdrawal" or "transfer student no-show"
- Approval by Student & Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP)
- Request can only be made 60 days before semester start
- Proof of in-person enrollment (min. 1 credit) required at time of request

Who issues the I-20?

DEGREE LEVEL	OFFICE
Undergraduate Student	Office of Undergraduate Admissions & Recruitment
Graduate Student	Graduate Admissions Office
Wisconsin School of Business Graduate Student	Graduate Admissions Office
Law School	International Student Services
School of Medicine and Public Health	International Student Services
School of Pharmacy	International Student Services
Veterinary Medicine	International Student Services
Visiting International Student	Visiting International Student Program
Special/Non-degree Students	Visiting International Student Program
English as a Second Language (ESL)	International Student Services

ISS Reduced Course Load (RCL) Approvable Reasons

Academic Difficulties – Can only be used one time per degree level. You must remain in at least half of your full-time enrollment requirement.

- Initial difficulty with the English language (only acceptable in your first year on campus)
- Initial difficulty with reading requirements (only acceptable in your first year on campus)
- Unfamiliarity with U.S. teaching methods (only acceptable in your first year on campus)
- Improper course level placement

ISS Reduced Course Load (RCL)

Approvable Reasons

Medical condition –

- May be used for up to 12 months, but must be applied for each semester.
- You may enroll in any number of credits your medical professional recommends for you.
- If your medical professional recommends you to enroll in 0 credit hours, you must complete the Registrar's Office Withdrawal Form.
- Only the following medical professionals can recommend you for a medical reduced course load:
  - licensed U.S. medical doctor, doctor of osteopathy, or licensed clinical psychologist
- Your medical professional must provide you a letter, on letterhead, to substantiate the illness or medical condition and recommendation to reduce your course load.

ISS Reduced Course Load (RCL) Approvable Reasons

- Final Semester of Study

- If you need less than a full-time course load to complete your program of study in your final semester. (If you are enrolled in summer semester, that is your final semester.)

- Coursework completed

- This option is only available for PhD and Master's students.
- You must have completed all coursework and have only your thesis/comprehensive examination (Master's) or preliminary examination (PhD).
- At a minimum, you must enroll in 2 graduate level (300+) credits. Check with your academic department and the Graduate School Academic Policy on enrollment requirements.
- PhD students whose dissertator status is still pending at the start of the semester should apply for this authorization.

ISS Reduced Course Load (RCL) Unapprovable Examples

- Fear of poor grades
- Dissatisfaction with online learning

RCL approvable reasons are defined by federal regulations.

ISS is here to work with you and your department to determine your eligibility for an RCL within the federal regulations.

You have the option to end your status and drop below full-time

UW-Madison's International Travel Policy

The University International Travel Resources, Guidelines and Policies \(“Travel Policy”\) expresses UW-Madison’s dedication to the vibrant opportunities that grow from international education, research, and outreach.

This policy attempts to mitigate risk present in many parts of the world with reasonable consideration for planned travel to destinations where there is heightened risk. It is not a constraint on your plans, but instead is a process that describes the university’s interest in ensuring your safety and security in the international environment.

Travel Guidance for Students

- Consider the necessity of your travel
- Review global travel advisories
- Check the validity of your immigration documents. Electronic I-20s are acceptable. Original DS-2019s are required.
- Consider purchasing insurance plans for your travel
- Return by the start date of spring classes: January 25, 2021

Travel Restrictions

- There are travel restrictions and guidance around the globe. We recommend you review the COVID-19 Travel Recommendations from the Center for Disease Control.
  - <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/travelers/map-and-travel-notices.html>
- Travel bans still exist as well. Please see info on our website: <https://iss.wisc.edu/students/current-students/travel/travel-bans/>
- Other countries may restrict travel to the U.S.

Entry to U.S.

- Admittance to the U.S. is at the discretion of CBP officers. We always advise students to take their immigration documents with them.
  - Valid Passport
  - Valid F-1 visa
  - Proof of I-901 payment
  - Proof of full-time enrollment (download from Student Center)
    - New students require min. 1 in-person/hybrid credit
  - Travel with most recently issued I-20/DS-2019
    - New I-20 will be electronically issued and uploaded to their Terra Dotta portal

Enrollment letters hybrid instruction
