BEST STUDY SPOTS ON CAMPUS

2024-25
EDITION

SOME SUGGESTIONS AT THE BEGINNING TO HELP YOU FINDING PERFECT STUDY SPOTS...

- Firstly, ask your classmates and advisors! Many departments have specific study areas in their building. Graduate students often have Graduate Lounges!
- Secondly, Google Maps is your best friend to get to places you are unfamiliar with campus!
- Thirdly, check out the open hours on their websites before heading there, in case special events happen!

INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY CENTER (ICC) AT ISS

702 Langdon St

- Once you enter the Pyle Center, turn right! Right into the ISS office area!
- Space also includes:
 - Hot Beverage Bar for free tea and coffee
 - Multifaith Prayer and Meditation Space
 - Lactation and Family Wellness Room
- Sometimes events for international students happen in this space also- Check out our website to explore: <https://iss.wisc.edu/get-involved/>

716 Langdon St

- One of the most diverse buildings on campus where are identity-based offices - such as Latinx (LCC), Black (BCC) and Asian (APIDA)
- On the second floor, the Multicultural Student Center (MSC) has space available.
- Often has free study supplies and sometimes free snacks

A vertical photograph showing the exterior of a brick building. The building has several windows and red banners hanging from the facade. The banners feature a white logo, possibly a stylized 'M'. The building is surrounded by trees with some autumn-colored leaves.

COLLEGE LIBRARY

600 N Park St

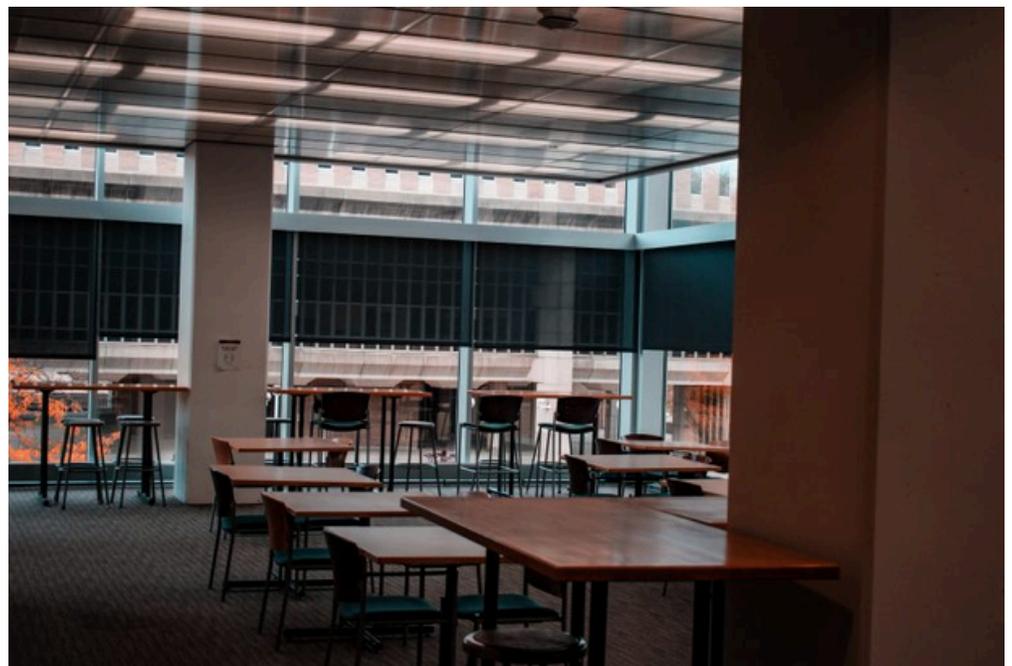

- With a coffee shop, computer labs, some silence-only rooms, and printing services
- Has the most general resources, such as DesignLab, and Librarians - specialized staff that can help you with your research
- Beautiful view of Lake Mendota

STUDENT ACTIVITY CENTER (THE SAC)

333 East Campus Mall

- 3rd and 4th floor of East Campus Mall
- Where a lot of other student organizations, such as GUTS (tutoring) are located since the SAC is student-run
- Has a computer lab and printing services

KOHLER ART LIBRARY

800 University Ave

- In front of the Chazen Museum
- Has snacks right across the "street" at the Chazen Cafe, but it is way easier to find a spot there than it is at the Museum
- Very cozy and comfortable

WISCONSIN HISTORICAL SOCIETY

816 State St

- At Library Mall - in front of Memorial Union
- Gorgeous architecture with quiet and spacious rooms
- Technically not part of campus - it's a state library

MEMORIAL LIBRARY

728 State St

- Private Study Room Available
- Printer
- Long Opening Hour
- Computer Lab Available

UNION SOUTH

3313 University Ave

- A computer lab on the second floor
- Lots of food options
- Events and activities happen frequently
- Good for communication and teamwork
- Always busy at noon
